Celebrate Summer Nights with Concerts and Movies under the Stars
Free Outdoor Entertainment Series Returns to Beverly Cañon Gardens starting June 1st

The City of Beverly Hills' Community Services Department is proud to announce the 2014 season of its popular, outdoor entertainment series featuring free concerts and movie nights.

This summer will feature 10 Thursday evening concerts and five Sunday movie nights, which debut on June 1 with the screening of School of Rock. All events are located in the stunning Beverly Cañon Gardens, located on 241 N. Cañon Drive, between Thomas Keller's famous Bouchon restaurant and The Montage Hotel.

The Sunday movie nights—shown on a giant, inflatable screen—begin at 8 p.m. The Thursday night concerts feature sets at both 6 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. to accommodate different schedules. Parking is available to patrons of the shows in the Beverly Cañon Gardens parking structure.

The gorgeous gardens feature plentiful seating and a large, grassy area for picnic blankets. Tables and chairs will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Patrons are encouraged to enjoy outdoor dining at surrounding Beverly Hills restaurants or pick-up custom "to-go" boxes from local eateries.

Come experience a magical California venue at one of our 15 shows! The eclectic concert line-up ranges from classic rock, Motown covers and jazz to Latin grooves and Doo Wop. For a full list of concert dates and summer movie offerings, see below.

For more information, call (310) 285-6830 or visit www.beverlyhills.org/BeverlyCanon.
